

Donald R. Smith

President of the ICC drafting group for the Uniform Rules for Forfaiting and President of Global Trade Advisory Ltd

Donald R. Smith has over 39 years experience in international banking operations and trade product management. He has been responsible for international operations for 4 banks including one of the world's largest. He served as senior project manager for the ICC's 2011 Basel III Default Registry project which documented the level of risk in trade transactions; chaired the US Delegation to the ICC Banking Commission from 1998 to 2009 and co-chaired the drafting group which produced the ICC's International Standard Banking Practices (ISBP) publication. Don is presently chair of the ICC drafting group for the Uniform Rules for Forfaiting.

Don has also served on the Board of Directors and the Executive Committee of the Board for the International Financial Services Association, where he has served on their technical trade committees for over 30 years and chaired the IFSA Annual Conference 3 times. Currently he is President of Global Trade Advisory Ltd., located in Charlotte, NC, where he focuses on conducting training in trade products and regulatory compliance. He also has served as an Expert Witness over a dozen times.