

Gonçalo Gaspar

Deputy Director, International Business Division, Caixa Geral de Depósitos (CGD)

Graduated in Management from School of Economics and Management (ISEG), Technical University of Lisbon. Post-graduated from the “Institute of Bank Management”, within the Advanced Programme in Bank Management from the Portuguese Catholic University, under-PAGIF Advanced Management Programme of Financial Institutions.

Effective in CGD in 1997, he has experience in various areas of international banking, particularly in management control of branches and subsidiaries of the bank, origination of international corporate operations and trade finance.

He is currently Deputy Director of the International Business Department, supporting the internationalization of customers in close coordination with the domestic business network and boosting business "cross border" with the International Units of the Group, supported by a team of managers specialized in international business and foreign markets.