

Kamola Makhmudova

Principal Banker, Trade Facilitation Programme (TFP); Financial Institutions Team (FI); European Bank for Reconstruction and Development (EBRD)

Kamola Makhmudova is the Principal Banker in the Trade Facilitation Programme of the Financial Institutions department where she is in charge of the programme's business development as well as number of technical assistance projects.

Kamola worked in EBRD's transport, power and energy utilities departments and has a wide range experience in emerging market economies, working on debt, equity and complex project finance projects with both the private and public sectors. Kamola started her career at ABN AMRO Bank in 1997, where she worked in corporate banking and then headed VIP desk of the Customer Services Department.

Kamola holds MSc in Accounting and Finance from Guildhall University London and is an undergraduate alumnus of the London School of Economics. She also holds undergraduate/ postgraduate degrees from the Uzbek State University in Education.