

Teresa Carrera Lourenço Montes

Head of Banks and Financial Institutions, Caixa Geral de Depósitos

Teresa is Head of Banks and Financial Institutions of Caixa Geral de Depósitos Group responsible for the global relationship with Financial Institutions for Treasury, Transactional and Trade Services.

She has over twenty years' experience in managing client relationships within the payment and international management business and she has held a wide variety of positions in product management, sales, marketing, client service and international credit.

Teresa also represents CGD at Connector Alliance – International Cash Management Club.

She is graduated in Economics by the Portuguese Catholic University and a post graduated in Bank and Financial Institutions by the Portuguese Catholic University.